

ENROLMENT PROCEDURE IN BASIC MODE

FIRST-CYCLE STUDIES

Major: CONDUCTING

Specialty: Symphony and Opera Conducting

full-time 3-year BA studies

Description

The aim of the programme is to master conducting skills and the basic symphonic, opera and oratorio repertoire, as well as to develop skills of working with a musical ensemble. The programme educates future conductors of symphony and opera orchestras. First-cycle studies prepare for further education at the master's level.

Full-time teachers of the major subject (conducting) in the academic year 2021/2022:

- prof. dr hab. Jan Miłosz Zarzycki
- dr hab. Monika Wolińska, Associate Professor
- dr hab. Rafał Janiak

Tests

Stage 1

- conducting a prepared symphony piece and an interview with particular emphasis put on basics of organology – a practical and oral test
- ear training – a written test

Stage 2

- ear training – an oral test
- piano and sight reading

Scope of material

- ear training
 - a written test: memory dictation, harmonic dictation, three-part dictation, error correction
 - an oral test: a pitch test (melodic and harmonic), sense of rhythm, music memory and imagination, sight singing
- basics of organology – an oral test: ranges, transposing, characteristics of orchestra instruments, historic development of music ensembles (handbooks: K. Sikorski, M. Drobner)
- piano – a baroque polyphonic piece, a classical form (to be chosen from sonata-allegro, rondo or variations) a study (or a piece fulfilling the criteria of so-called figurative melodic) a piece of candidate's choice (from romanticism to the contemporary era), sight reading.

Additional documents

Must be sent to dyrygentura@chopin.edu.pl by 4 June 2021, 2 p.m.

- The composer's name and the detailed title of the work conducted during the exam. A piece with piano reduction available (for example at the library of the Chopin University of Music) must be chosen.

SECOND-CYCLE STUDIES

Major: CONDUCTING

Specialty: Symphony and Opera Conducting

full-time 2-year MA studies

Description

The specialty educates professional conductors for symphony and opera orchestras. The aim of studies is mastering conductors' skills, as well as basic symphony, opera and oratorio repertoire and further development of the ability to work with a music ensemble. The graduate is ready to work with professional symphony and opera orchestras and work as an assistant-conductor or musical director.

Full-time teachers of the major subject (conducting) in the academic year 2021/2022:

- prof. dr hab. Jan Miłosz Zarzycki
- dr hab. Monika Wolińska, Associate Professor
- dr hab. Rafał Janiak

Tests

- conducting one of three prepared pieces from different periods, score reading and an interview with particular emphasis put on organology – a practical and oral test
- ear training – an oral test

Scope of material

- conducting one of three prepared pieces from different periods – the exam board has the right to choose the pieces, their parts or fragments
- score reading – sight reading taking into account different clefs and transpositions,
- organology – an oral test: ranges, transposing, characteristics of orchestra instruments, basics of instrumentation in the context of the historic development of orchestral ensembles (handbooks: K. Sikorski, M. Drobner)
- ear training – an oral test: a pitch test (melodic and harmonic), sense of rhythm, music memory and imagination, sight singing and error correction

Additional documents

Must be sent to dyrygentura@chopin.edu.pl by 25 June 2021, 2 p.m.

- The names of three composers and the detailed titles of prepared works from different periods (the exam board chooses the piece to be conducted during the exam) Pieces with piano reduction available (for example at the library of the Chopin University of Music) must be chosen.